

The Wanamaker Store.

About That Shoe Sale

EACH evening, as the shoe store emerges from the whirl and flurry of these tremendous selling-days, active hands go to work at cleaning up the day's debris, counting, reforming and consolidating.

Small lots go on special tables at new prices; sublimated bargains, for they began at half prices. That is a good strong hint for early comers, and while the lots are so small as to make further talk about them inadvisable, those who take the hint this morning will find a new kind of Tom Tiddler's Ground in the shoe store, where richness is to be picked up for little more than the trouble of stooping.

Here is what is left of the regular story,—full assortments in these for to-day, at least,—

Men's Shoes at Two-and-a-Half

The sort that critical men like to buy. Up to the regular $5 standard.

Men's Shoes at Two Dollars

Tan and black calfskin and patent leather.

Men's Shoes at One-Eighty

Stylish tan shoes mostly.

Men's Shoes at One-Forty

Some extra fine ones here.

Parlor and Sewing Tables

ture Sale. Fifty of these tables, about equally divided between those for looks,—parlor tables,—and those for practical work,—sewing tables.

Some of them in the green finish, some of them in Vernis-Martin.

Only one of a kind, and there won't be even one of a kind left by tonight, for the prices are mangled beyond recognition.

At $8.50 was $12—Imitation mahogany tea

At $12.—$20—Green Vernis-Martin parlor

table; Louis XIV. style; decorated top.

Rubber Goods

As a rule rubber goods are not subject to much fluctuation in price, but occasionally we see an opportunity, which we never lose. For example, a maker has decided to give up the manufacture of a certain style of hot water bottle. Result: Here are 75 dozen regular 50c. bottles offered at 25c. each.

And, again:—

At $5.—Excellent water bottle, 2 quarts.

At $6.—Mercury water bottle, 2 quarts; 3 rows of silk soutache.

At $8.—All wool, 12 rows of silk soutache, black and white silk necktie.

At $3.—All wool blue cheviet; collars and shields trimmed with silk soutache; silk

Some Carpets and Some Rugs

The Carpets are, first, twenty patterns of velvets,—seventy-five rolls in all, that have been selling until now at 90c. and $1 yard.

This Morning, 75c. a Yard.

Second—900 yards of Ingrain Carpets at a price that is ridiculous, if that could ever be said of a bargain. They're in small lots,—from ten to thirty-five yards,—undoubtedly quite large enough for you, however.

Thirty-five Cents a Yard.

They are the very best makes known to the trade, too.

The Rugs are Kashgar and Istaken Squares. Oriental in title, but made in England and not so well known here as they will be later when their beauty and merit are better understood. Very heavy weave, somewhat resembling body brussels; designs and colorings are novel and pretty and especially helpful and adaptable in the furnishing of medium-sized rooms.

And, not least, lowered prices, as follows:—

9 ft. 6 in.x12 ft., $15.85; were 22.25 9 ft. 6 in.x13 ft. 6 in., $17.25; were $25.50
